According to the people who have been downloading the Battleping, it is quite unstable.This version 2.1 is still under test though.Because it is new build it is still under test.The people who have been downloading it and giving a feedback on Battleping Forum,They say its an unstable version and it does not work well.They say that they are getting lots of errors.It is always recommended to install the last stable version as it will have less errors and works smoother. Warcraft 3 Battleping in World of Warcraft - Printable Version +- BATTLEPING - THE FORUM (7, 2017 The one on right is the "battleping" adapter on your client. The one on the left is the one that shows the "stalled" characters in-game. This not only happens with PvP and PVE but PVP too. Battleping in World of Warcraft: Battleping Windows is totally new. He's a friend and he's been playing WoW for 6 years now and he has ideas for a new addon that makes your game more free. This addon is what it is, Battleping is an addon that gives in game messages to show what's happening in your game.

For example if someone fails a skill and you're in a raid with five people they don't have to scroll through all five to find out who failed it, they get an in game alert on your screen of "Sleeper failed" after you hit "X" in the chat log, you get an alert that says "Sleeper failed and died" which is said after you hit "d" and there goes their ragdoll.
