Last weekend I made pancakes for the first time. I was so excited I told my dad every detail as I made them. I even gave him and my mom an exact recipe. They loved the finished product so much I decided to share it. With these high-protein, grain-free pancakes you will not have to worry about saturated fat, cholesterol or blood sugar issues. Make them with whatever protein you like or use a combination of some. I used chicken, beef and oats. Everyone enjoyed them! I am thinking this will be great for quick on-the-go lunches for kids (one of the first things mine pick out of a lunchbox).

----- I have not created these videos. I just try to spread your love to some great games that can make you fall in love with!!! In good faith (and in absolute honesty- because we've all made mistakes/have had trouble at some point and in time we might fall into the same trap/pitfall) rather than doing a bait and switch...we would like to make things a bit more easier and pleasant. This is not about trying to make a quick buck and and/or carry out a not so legal act. This is about trying to ease your PlayStation Network or Xbox LIVE Gold membership and trying to make a better and legal world of games. This series is intended to help new and old players to have fun on his PC/console/handheld and make things a little less complicated. I would be happy to share with you the games that I have been playing and recommend to others. Thanks and hope we get to see you soon. - All the best, - frank Use of this software is under the terms of the GNU General Public License (GPL), which can be found in the LICENSE file included in the directory.
