As I am sure you know by now, Xbox One will be receiving a new RPG of the year – DARK SOULS 2. The game which is very similar to the first Dark Souls title and it really stood out as one of my favorite RPG's that I have played since my PS2 days. I haven't been to the game myself (I have preordered it) but I've actually spoke to the developer on twitter and they said the PS4 version will be very similar to the Xbox One version, as they haven't gone through much if any Xbox 360 patches or released a patch for the Xbox One version. Dark Souls 2 will release on June 6th 2016 for the Playstation 4, Xbox One, PC, Playstation 3, Xbox 360 and it will be priced at 5.99€ on PC, €6.99 on the Playstation 3 and PS4, and €49.99 on the Xbox 360 and Xbox One. Dark Souls 2 will be released as a Standard Edition and a Collector's Edition priced at €62.99 and €80.99 respectively. The Collector's Edition includes: World's Edge illustrated hardback volume Deluxe illustrated hardback volume Portrait illustration by legendary Dark Souls artist Yui Tanimura Steelbook packaging with exclusive design Dark Souls 2 Collector's Edition Steelbook We will have our review for it as soon as we get our hands on the game, so stay tuned for more info. Let us know in the comments if you are going to preorder it. As we all know, games like The Legend of Zelda, Metroid, Tomb Raider, and Deus Ex have been covering some of the best mysteries that were contained within their world. Being on those mysteries and exploring those mysteries provided a unique feeling and experience to the player. Three points would be missed without exploring the dark passageways and hidden rooms scattered throughout Hyrule. In Donkey Kong 64 there is a room that, despite not being an important part of the game, each of us always wanted to explore. We want to get to that room, to see what secrets it holds... But who would normally play a game about exploration and the sheer thrill that comes with discovering a hidden room? I can't tell you how many times as a kid I begged my parents to take me to the Game over in Super Mario 64 to get to that room, hoping to finally discover bff6bb2d33
