The company's parent, Air Charter, Inc., was founded by chief executive officer and managing partner Daniel C. Johnson in 2016. Originally, Airpower operated a fractional jet company with hubs in JFK, Las Vegas, San Francisco and Salt Lake City. Founded in 2012 by billionaire Paul Tudor Jones, Air Charter sells private jet charters in the United States and operates in Canada. It delivers jet charters to clients around the world. Air Charter, Inc. reported that its net loss of $3.1 million in 2017 included a $2.5 million non-cash goodwill impairment charge related to its contract with the federal government. Upon closing of the Airpower acquisition, Air Charter Inc. will no longer be a subsidiary of Audience, Inc. AUDI shares will continue to be traded on Nasdaq. "We are excited to combine the extensive experience and expertise of the Airpower team with Audience's world-class flight technology and logistical support," Daniel C.
