Software like Photoshop let you edit photos by removing unwanted elements like people, trees, road signs or sky — known as cropping or red-eye correction. You can also change the orientation of your image, colorize it, make it grayscale, add effects, change the brightness and contrast, or edit

Fraud 'Stupidity' MARYSVILLE, Wash. — A political novice who is running for office in Washington said recently that voter fraud should be prosecuted as "stupidity" and maybe even "criminal stupidity." The State Journal asked candidate for Washington State Senate John Gabrielson about his comments at a local Democratic party meeting and at a recent town hall.

Gabrielson is a 60-year-old realtor and a longtime community volunteer. He is running for the seat being vacated by the state's only Democratic senator, Maria Cantwell. Asked about a recent comment he made about a voter ID law passed by the Legislature to curb voter fraud, Gabrielson said “I had been thinking about voter ID for a while.” “Well, (at the town hall), I said that when the Legislature passed the voter ID law, this was not the time for us to be looking at voter ID. Why? Because what the Legislature has done is look at the criminal stupidity of voter fraud, that’s why. And they’re continuing to look at criminal stupidity, they’re continuing to look at other forms of fraud and to outlaw people who are voting under the false identification. So I think they’re doing the right thing,” he said. The voter ID law is scheduled to take effect in January 2013.

The State Journal asked Gabrielson about a comment he made at a town hall last weekend. “No one expected (June primary) to be an open primary. It came as a shock. I’m sure the consultants – I was one of them – I’m sure they tried to adjust and make their plans to where they thought the votes would go and didn’t expect them to go this way,” he said. Asked about this comment, Gabrielson said that the consultants included him in the party’s “brain trust” on where the votes would go. “It wasn’t because I was a card-carrying member, but because they had to call me and tell me how to
