What's new:

A L'Age d'Eblis, or the Envoy Extraordinary, was founded and built by Hilary of the Divine Flame roughly 35 years after the Great Schism. It has been named for the first of the Divine Flame Knights who's soul was stolen by the Usurper Dalivar and revived by the Living Flame by the Paracelsus known as Maelkan. In the ruins of an ancient city, one could often find the remnants of the most important structures built centuries ago. Often, these ruins might serve as dwelling or resting place for nobility of the past. The the Grand Priory of Maelkan is a powerful organization originating from before the Great Schism, a succesor of the Knights of Wyvern, and the one who enslaved Dhurien at the beginning of the wars. At a certain point the Grand Priory was set back by the Usurper Dalivar. This made the current Grand Master decide to rebuild the society of Maelkan. Not a care for the state of their former organization, he ordered a radical change of the current Order. The new Grand Master formed the Order of Eschalion, and decided to launch himself in contact with the outside world. From this moment on, the Order rose to a new level and got linked to the negotiations of the Great Council, a tentacular group made by all the orders of the world in order to to set on the right track the civilization of this ancient continent. Still serving as a federation of the highest orders in the world, it's a quite huge multi-cultural society made by different races, and the center of the protection of the Holy Kingdom. It's at her helm the Grandmaster of Eschalion. The History of the World The world, in its time, is evolving towards the death of the aging sun. The greatest cities would turn they're buildings into celestial batteries, in a poulre state of evacuation, while the grand nations would start to sail into the void void the dying sun, having off-lined the big cities to use them as anchorages for the fleet vessels. It was at this time, and the fact that the world entered into the first world war, humanity got invaded by a parastat shtakk, a parasitic force, that would slowly transform the populations of the different nations, in order to satiate his will to power. After a long winter, a large armada,
