Archive for the 'Kid N Play' Category Hello. My name is Pahton and as I am growing up I did love playing movie. My favorite film during my childhood was the movie "Fifteen Million Merits" directed by W. Scott Cameron. I had seen it several times in my childhood. It was my favorite film in the year 2000. I played it more than ten times during my childhood and never tire of watching it over and over again. The movie was released back in the year 1974. In the year 2014 it was still a favorite for me. KNP is still one of the best movies of all time and it will never change the times even if the producers try to change the story so that it is not based on reality. The movie remains famous and popular all over the world. Although I grew up watching this movie, I do not know it so well till I read the novel as a school boy. The movie, when it is played to us, allows us to live or die it is what it shows that we do not miss. The movie, back then, played it to us at a level and we understood it. The movie is set in the present day of the year 1432. The movie takes place in the time of Mongol rulers. "Yao" is about a son of a "Duke." The movie plays on the idea that the young Duke has been outcast by his father, instead of inheriting a fortune, he be given the task of delivering a notarized letter, then he is to return all the money, and if he fails to do it, then he is to die. If the Duke feels that he has been set up to fail, he will give his life to the person who has sent him the letter. The Duke's son is given the task of delivering the letter. The letter contains all the money in seven envelopes. Each envelope has 15 million "merits", more than enough to make a fortune. What the Duke actually wants his son to do is to kill someone. No one else is to be aware of this. But the Duke's son is unable to carry out the task. With the help of a loyal servant, he escapes to the Mongolian desert, where he finds a friend, the Mongolian queen. The movie is released back in the year 2000. The movie plays on 1cdb36666d
